

Intercultural Project for High School Students „Believe what you want“

Religious Minorities in Germany, Poland, Denmark and Turkey with aubiko e.V.

About us

aubiko e.V. is a non-profit association for exchange, education and communication in international contexts located in Hamburg, Germany. Besides teaching of the German language at all levels, Student advisory services, Development of intercultural exchange through cross-border academic and cultural projects, international high-school exchange programs, university internationalization projects, intercultural training seminars and coaching sessions, we organize intercultural projects to promote international understanding and tolerance and provide our expertise in training seminars for high school students and universities. Visit our website www.aubiko.de to find out more about our profile.

Our project „Believe what you want!“ - Religious Minorities in Germany, Poland, Denmark and Turkey

For one week, 20 high school students and 4 teachers from Germany, Poland, Denmark and Turkey will come together in Germany to reflect and discuss the way religious minorities are treated in their countries. As members of religious minorities experience discrimination worldwide and independently of the relationship between state and religion in the respective country, it is one of the most important tasks to sensitize young people to prejudices and discrimination in their societies. The students will be accompanied by teachers, expert in religious sciences, theater and music educators to be engaged in this topic from different perspectives. The goal of the project is to develop strategies for how to react to discrimination as well as artistic results theater play, a multilingual newspaper and an exhibition. The teachers will develop teaching materials on that topic.

The project takes place from January 17th to January 24th 2016.

You are 15-17 years old and interested in taking part in this project as a high school student? Or you are an educational institution or association that is interested in intercultural projects with high school students? Please contact us via info@aubiko.de.

